

4. Notwithstanding these limitations, the court will allow any pro se objector and counsel an opportunity to briefly address the court if the objector/counsel needs to do so.

5. If possible, evidence should be submitted in document form or by affidavit. The court does not wish to allow live testimony unless it is necessary to do so.

SO ORDERED.

DATED this 2nd day of December, 2010.

BY THE COURT:

s/ Joseph F. Bataillon
Chief United States District Judge